Picadio Sneath Miller & Norton, P.C. is a well-known commercial law firm with its principal office in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and a strong presence throughout Pennsylvania. The firm is a commercial law and business litigation boutique representing clients in litigation in state and federal courts and providing counsel to corporations, business owners and individuals facing contract, licensing, non-competition, corporate governance, insurance, trade secret, real estate, shareholder, intellectual property, general business, environmental law and select personal injury issues.

The firm's three principal attorneys* were all named Pennsylvania Super Lawyers and all are rated AV by Martindale Hubbell. The firm itself is rated AV by Martindale Hubbell, which is the highest rating for skill and integrity given by that publication, and appears in the Bar Register for Preeminent Lawyers, which lists only those law firms which have received an AV rating in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory and have been designated outstanding in their field. Alan Miller is listed among the Top 50 Pittsburgh Super Lawyers.

Anthony Picadio is a well-known business

litigator who has over thirty years experience in representing clients in complex business litigation and class actions with an emphasis on cases involving claims of securities fraud, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, intellectual property, trade practices, environmental law and insurance coverage. He has extensive jury trial experience in various state and federal jurisdictions and is listed in Best Lawyers in America in Business Litigation and Environmental Law. He has also acted as outside general counsel providing general business legal advice and representation to business corporations including a publicly held real estate development company.

Henry Sneath has tried over 80 cases to verdict in a variety of state and federal jurisdictions and has successfully represented clients in many equity, injunctive and declaratory judgment actions. He has represented Fortune 500 companies, small businesses and individuals in trademark, copyright, licensing, trade practices, construction, breach of contract, products liability, professional negligence and insurance coverage litigation. He is the Chair of a national organization of over 1000 Commercial Litigators and Corporate Counsel and he edits or contributes to several national and regional publications on litigation.

Alan Miller is an attorney with twenty-two years of experience in complex litigation and counseling in the areas of environmental law, insurance coverage, professional errors and omissions and commercial litigation. He is listed in Best Lawyers in America for Environmental Law and he counsels a wide variety of corporations and individuals on solid waste permitting and compliance, contribution and cost recovery actions under CERCLA and related state statutes, contamination from leaking underground storage tanks, air and water pollution regulatory enforcement actions, and real estate transactions involving contaminated and recycled industrial sites. Prior to joining the firm in 1987, he had served as a trial attorney in the United States Justice Department representing the Environmental Protection Agency.
